

LEAVES HIS WIFE THE MONEY SHE HAS

Aberman Explains in His Will, Filed Before Death, That He Cannot Get It Himself, Anyhow.

A will which contains some very unusual provisions was filed in the Surrogate's office on Saturday by Lawyer Charles Frankel, of No. 120 Nassau street, for safekeeping and to await the death of the maker, Hirsch Aberman. Among other provisions Aberman sets aside for the benefit of the "Zaleszykyer Kranten Unterstutzung Verein, of which I am now a member and have been for eighteen years past, any endowment which I may be entitled to upon my death to be disposed of as follows: Thirty dollars to be used for the saying of prayers for a year after my death and for the purpose of erecting a tombstone on my grave, and $70 or thereabouts to be the purchase price of a Hebrew scroll, to be used by said congregation for their divine services. Then Mr. Aberman makes the following unusual bequest: "I give and bequeath to my wife the money she now has in bank, which belongs to me, as well as the jewelry and household furniture. I make this bequest to my wife for the reason that I cannot obtain possession of said bequest, my wife having thrown me from the house."

WINDOW CLIMBERS FINED.

Fifty Arrested for Not Entering Bridge Cars by Doors. Fifty "window climbers" arrested yesterday for crawling through windows of bridge cars were fined $1 each to-day by Magistrate Breen in the Centre Street Court. All of the persons arrested were men. Some were well dressed, while others were shabby clothing. "I shall treat all alike," said the Magistrate. "This nuisance must be stopped."

Nearly all paid their fines. A few who could not were sent to the Tombs until 4 P. M., when they will be discharged.

WIDOW ALTERS HER MIND AT ALTAR

Bridegroom-Elect, Full of Good Food and Spirits, Gets Peevish, Fires Pistol and Goes to Jail for Thirty Days.

August Drosse, handsome, big chested and thirty, would not "beware of the widows." His Kaiser Wilhelm mustache fairly bristled at a greater angle when a friend cautioned him recently that the widow, Alma Moll, who conducts and operates a cozy little beer saxon at No. 56 Newark street, Hoboken, was just "fooling" with him.

Drosse had been assiduous in his wooing of the widow, who is fair and thirty-six, and the wedding date had been fixed for last night. With a dozen friends who, like himself, are in the employ of the Atlas steamship line, Drosse proceeded to Hoboken last night in spirits and burdened with flowers, fruits and presents for the charming widow.

Drosse was greeted affectionately by Widow Moll, and she courted prettily when the friends were presented. "I have arranged for the minister to be here at 8 o'clock, August," the widow explained, "and all is in readiness."

Eight o'clock came and went, so did 9 and 10 o'clock. In the mean time the happy Drosse and his friends had enjoyed the interim feasting and drinking from the widow's stock and at Drosse's expense.

At 10:30 o'clock, when the impatient Drosse demanded that another minister be sent for, the widow's smile vanished, her white apron before her eyes and confided to Drosse that her heart had undergone a change. There would be no wedding.

That Drosse's Kaiser Wilhelm mustache drooped like a blighted flower. He became real angry and began to clean out the saloon. Later he followed the widow with a big revolver, which he discharged until eight o'clock came and went, so did 9 and 10 o'clock. In the mean time the happy Drosse and his friends had enjoyed the interim feasting and drinking from the widow's stock and at Drosse's expense.

SAFE BLOWERS GOT CASH.

BOSTON, June 12.—The safe at the office of the Worcester County Creamery Company, at No. 49 Berkeley street, south end, was blown open during the night by burglars, who escaped with the contents. The burglars forced their way into the place from the cellar of Parker Memorial Hall, the creamery office being in the same building. The police found no clues.

MRS. MARY NACHTIGAL, WHO HAS SOUGHT HUSBAND TWENTY YEARS.

RUNAWAY WEEPS FOR HOME.

Trenton Boy Who Came Here Asks Police to Help Him Home. Clayton Burgess, thirteen years old, of Trenton, N. J., crying and foot-sore, walked into the Montgomery street police station, Jersey City, early to-day and asked Roundsman George Heck in charge, to help him get back home. The lad said he started away from Trenton last Saturday in company with two other boys for New York to see the sights. "When we got in New York," said young Burgess, "the other fellows ran away from me. I didn't know where to get to. I was in New York all day Saturday and slept in a lodging-house. Last night after a lot of trouble I managed to find the Corlandt street, very dark, and other boys took my money all but a few cents, and I concluded to walk home. I can't walk any further."

The boy was cared for and his parent notified.

SEARCHED FOR HER HUSBAND 20 YEARS.

Mrs. Mary Nachtigal Has Sought in Vain for Man She Was Separated from a Generation Ago—Helpless Now.

Mrs. Mary Nachtigal, a sweet-faced old lady of sixty, who lives at No. 92 Passaic avenue, Harrison, N. J., has searched in vain for her husband, Anton Nachtigal, for twenty years. She believes that he has been searching for her during this long interval, and is still searching for her.

Anton Nachtigal is seventy-three years old. He came to New York from Germany twenty-one years ago. A year later he sent for his wife and children to join him. He gave her an address, but when Mrs. Nachtigal and her children went there they found a vacant house, and no one in the neighborhood had heard of Mr. Nachtigal.

Then began the hunt for the husband that has continued for twenty years and living with her needle now, under means when she arrived in New York. Mrs. Nachtigal was compelled to seek employment as housekeeper. She was employed in a number of places, and save that her husband is still alive, she has not heard of him.

She searched for her husband many of these places, but many months after she had come to some other city. She learned that he had made a large fortune in Canada. She is compelled to live with her needle now.

Time foot having made her give up her search as hopeless, she has been told that her husband still lives here, but would care for her if he could but her.

FAITH CURISTS ON THEIR PILGRIMAGE

Thousands Gather at the Home of Mrs. Eddy to Pay Yearly Homage—New Edifice Inspected.

CONCORD, N. H., June 12.—Several thousand Christian Scientists on their annual pilgrimage to this place gathered here to-day at the home of Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, the founder of Christian Science.

In connection with the pilgrimage and in response to a special invitation from Mrs. Eddy the visitors viewed the elaborate new Christian Science edifice at Concord, the gift of Mrs. Eddy.

HIT BY ELEVATED TRAIN.

Patrick Healy, Workman, Didn't Get Out of Way in Time.

Patrick Healy, an iron-worker, of No. 1 East One Hundred and Twenty-first street, was seriously injured to-day while at work on the Sixth avenue elevated railroad structure near the Grand street station.

Healy had crossed himself on a north bound train car along. He endeavored to crawl out before the train reached him and almost succeeded, but just as he was about to jump free of the tracks the train struck him and threw him quite a distance.

Several of his ribs were broken, his hip was injured and he sustained internal injuries. He was removed to St. Vincent's Hospital.

Women's 5.00 Resilia Shoes, Justly Famous, at 2.45

WE DON'T CARE how many Shoe Sales you read of to-day, we know that you will turn to this extraordinary opportunity because it will make other efforts appear feeble.

Resilia Shoes for Women have been advertised in every magazine of note in the United States as the highest class 5.00 Shoe before the public. To the left of this space we publish a reproduction of one of these advertisements. Read it.

You will learn that Resilia Shoes have an air pump hidden between the outer and inner soles that expands every time you step, inhaling fresh air into the channels.

When your weight is on your foot the air pump collapses, and the air is locked in by a valve and is driven into the stocking through the perforated insole. This air-circulating process is repeated every time you walk. This is the Resilia Ventilating Shoe that is known and worn in every State of this Union, because no foot will perspire if inclosed in a pair of them. They were never sold for less than 5.00 until now. In the Women's Oxfords there are three styles; the widths run from AA to E and every size from 2 1/2 to 8.

Oxfords No. 1 are made of the finest grade kidskin, have welled soles, Resilia ventilating insoles, military walking heels and Vassar toes. They are silk fitted throughout, have flesh-shade calf linings, silk laces and are correct in every detail. They are genuine 5.00 Resilia Oxfords at 2.45.

Oxfords No. 2 are made of ideal patent kid shining leather, with toes, trimmings and all other details the same as No. 1. Genuine Resilia 5.00 Oxfords at 2.45.

Oxfords No. 3 are made of soft cadet kidskin with velvet finish, stock of heavy calf-kid, toe a trifle wider than No. 1, but not too mannish, and the sole is slightly heavier. In other details they are the same as No. 1. Genuine 5.00 Resilia Oxfords at 2.45.
